ELCA Prayer Ventures

January 24-31

24

We pray that everyone in need of warmth and shelter through the winter months has safe, dependable housing, especially elders and those who are homeless, and that we are unceasing in our work to care for and respect the dignity of people in need.

25

Conversion of Paul

Praise God for the miraculous ways our faith and lives are changed as the Spirit works in us and among us.

26

Just as the disciples put down their fishing nets in response to Jesus' invitation to follow, we pray we are alert and receptive to God's calling us to service and witness in the world and that we are willing to reorder our priorities, tasks and lives to follow Jesus.

27

We remember in our prayers pastors and seminary students serving in Federal Chaplaincy Ministries in unique settings of the U.S. military, Veterans Affairs hospitals and federal correctional institutions.

28

Ask God to open our eyes to the ways – intentional and unintentional – in which we isolate our neighbor, cause others to stumble in their faith or stir division and conflict; ask for forgiveness and for the Spirit to redirect and inform our thoughts, words and actions for the well-being of our neighbor and the church.

29

Give thanks for the impact of the International Women Leaders initiative in partnership between ELCA Global Mission, global companion churches and the colleges and universities of the ELCA, launched as part of Always Being Made New: The Campaign for the ELCA.

30

Pray God continues to influence our lives and guide us through the teaching and example of prophets, teachers, leaders and Scripture and that we have the wisdom to discern what is true and flows from the word of God.

31

Give thanks for leaders who help us understand stewardship and how to use what God has entrusted to each of us and our communities – gifts from God to be used with generosity, compassion and responsibility in service to our neighbor and for the growth of the church.

WORSHIP

Save the Date

The combined choirs of Peace Lutheran Church, Shepherd of the Lake Lutheran Church and the Episcopal Church of the Good Samaritan will be presenting Requiem by John Rutter with orchestra on Wednesday, March 21 at 7:00 p.m. at Good Samaritan. A requiem is a mass for the repose of the souls of the dead, and is traditionally sung during Lent and Holy Week. This setting by John Rutter is written in both Latin (more about that later!) and English, and is both beautiful and extremely moving. It will propel us into a deeply meaningful observance of Holy Week and celebration of Easter.

Share a Quote

These past two Sundays I have offered up a quote at the beginning of the service that reflects on the day's sermon. I am wondering if you have read something and would like to share a quote. If you think it speaks to the gospel, send it to me and I can share it with the congregation at the beginning of the service. I might even use it in the sermon. Send it to me (Pastor Ralph) at ralphkirkpatrick@me.com and put in the subject line: Words to Think About.

STEWARDSHIP

The Latest News on "Our Roof has a Hole in It"

We are very excited because we have a new roof on the way. The council approved our recommendation for Holland Roofing to do the job for $26,869 and a signed contract has been mailed to their office. We have a total in the roofing fund of $31,000 between cash in hand and pledges. We anticipate that there will be other expenses as there usually are when one is redoing a building project. Thanks for all the enthusiasm and support. You probably won't need to stock up on umbrellas.

DISCIPLESHIP

Sunday Morning Adult Education

Have you ever wanted a deeper relationship with God? Have you ever wondered how to get there? Maybe that depth can happen through Centering Prayer. For the next three weeks Pastor Ralph will be leading our Sunday morning Adult Education hour in an introduction to the Christian practice of Centering Prayer: Entering into the Silence with God. Please come and be a part of this experience.

We need your help! The Souper Bowl of Caring is on February 4. We need your awesome soups and breads for our annual fundraiser for FISH. Please sign up on the sheet in the hallway. Women of Peace

Our January date was also the date for the snow storm. Five women did show up for the meeting; we cleaned in the kitchen and took ourselves out for a fine lunch, but we did not do the program of sharing travel stories. Join us February 20 for this event, and you won't have to feel pressured to clean anything.

MISCELLANEOUS

Installation of the Rev. Dr. Henry L. Boudon

The Rev. Dr. Henry Lawrence Boudon will be installed as Pastor at Grace Lutheran Church 131 West Gettysburg Avenue Oak Ridge, Tennessee Saturday, the third of February in the year Two Thousand and eighteen at three o'clock in the afternoon, EST. Reception to follow.

Closing the Door

As we have moved into winter we are asking that you be mindful as you leave the church to make sure the door fully closes behind you. The two front doors in particular tend not to close. Let's keep our church safe!

Thank you from Pastor Ralph

Peace Lutheran Church is known in our community as a loving, giving congregation. You have proven this time and time again both in the community and among our own church family. This Christmas you showed your love to Frannie and I and the rest of our staff. Thank you from our family to yours for your gracious generosity. Thank you for giving above and beyond. Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus to the Kirkpatrick family. We appreciate you.

Thank You!

Peggy and I would like to say a huge thank you to the congregation for our generous Christmas gifts. We are overwhelmed by your love and friendship and also by your support of the music ministry here at Peace. Thank you again for thinking of us and for your overwhelming kindness you show us each and every day. God bless you and your family in the New Year! -Emily Anderson and Peggy Ransom

Thank you for your generosity!

I would like to say a huge thank you to the Peace Family for the generous Christmas gift. Our hearts were warmed by the outpouring of “Christmas Love” from the folks here. It is a privilege to minister here. ~Andrea Holloman, Administrative Assistant
