ELCA Prayer Ventures

July 10-17

10

Augusta Victoria Hospital in Jerusalem is owned and operated by the Lutheran World Federation and supported by the ELCA. Pray for our federal government to release the funding approved for Augusta Victoria Hospital and the other members of the East Jerusalem Hospital Network so they can continue their lifesaving health care ministries in the Holy Land.

11

Praise God, make a joyful noise, sing the glory of God's name and "say to God, 'How awesome are your deeds!'"

12

Remember in prayer the work of the Rev. Janelle Neubauer, YAGM country coordinator, and the seven young people serving in the ELCA Young Adults in Global Mission program with the Lutheran Church of Rwanda in the areas of parish ministry, vocational training for youth, women's ministry, education and community organizing.

13

Pray that the Spirit will guide us — especially the "family of faith" — in how best to support, encourage and care for one another, that we will be faithful servants and witnesses in the world and "not grow weary in doing what is right."

14

Ask the Holy Spirit to help us understand the meaning and relevance of Jesus' parables. Pray that we hear and put into action Jesus' urging for us to care for our neighbor, especially those who suffer in poverty, hunger and illness, and strangers who are unfamiliar or different from us.

15

Remember in prayer our newly elected synod bishops, that they will be inspired, equipped and sustained in faith and wisdom for serving the church and its leaders in an ever-changing world.

16

Amid the temptations, distractions and pressures of daily life, ask God to teach us the ways, paths and truths that are pleasing to God, and to guide us to be mindful of our neighbor's well-being and wholeness.

17

Pray for neighboring congregations and churches, that we, united in the one body of Christ, will strengthen and encourage one another for growing the church and, with the help of the Spirit, cultivate love, mercy, justice, hope and peace in the world.

WORSHIP

Worship Opportunities for July

On July 14, we will have Service of the Word with Tom Barnes presenting the sermon. After the service there will again be a chance to talk with council members with a time of Cookies and Conversation. The council should have more information on the interim and call process after the Saturday retreat.

On July 21, there will be a Holy Communion Service with Ryan Toby doing the sermon and Rev. Dick Krogmann presiding at communion.

On July 28, we will have Service of the Word with Toni McSorley doing the sermon.

Looking Ahead to August

- August 4 Service of the Word, Deb Buckley giving the sermon
- August 11 Holy Communion with Rev. Laura Shally
- August 18 Service of the Word Mike Taylor presenting the sermon
- August 28 Holy Communion with Rev. Laura Shally

Please keep your church council in your prayers, especially as we meet in retreat on July 13 with Rev. Ben Moravitz, Assistant to the Bishop, to make plans for our transition and an interim pastor.

Need for Pastoral Services for Illness or Hospitalization

Toni McSorley, our resident seminarian, has graciously agreed to serve in this capacity until we have an interim pastor. Please call the office, a council member, or Toni directly if need should arise.

Prayers Requested for David Ottinger

Please remember David in your prayers as he is in the hospital at UT Medical Center in serious condition.

Prayers Requested for Trent Simon

Please keep trying to Simon in your prayers. He has a virus in his heart for which he was hospitalized. He is now recovering at home.

OUTREACH

Lifting of Silver

This Sunday, July 14, is our second Sunday Lifting of Silver and Green. We send our donations to ELCA Pastor David Brondos in Mexico City. His most recent newsletter is on the Outreach board. In it he talks about using smart boards in his classroom and about Mexican food. He reminds us that we are welcome to visit for a "learning vacation."

FISH Update

Linda McClanahan made a special trip back to Knoxville to take the FISH calls Saturday, July 6. Two teams delivered those groceries; Tom Mustaleski with grandson Micah and Donna Ellstrom and Angie Moore. Thirty-three people were served at our ten stops. That means most families served were smaller in number than our usual list of families served. One group of six appeared to be disabled people sharing an apartment. I am glad we were able to provide.

Serving at KARM

July 13 is our next day to cook and serve at KARM. If you would like to help, please sign up on the bulletin board in the hallway. We meet about 9:30 a.m. at KARM to begin cooking, and are usually finished serving a little before 1:00 p.m. It is a very rewarding experience and we are truly doing God's work with our hands. We do not have to do any dishes! Come, be a part. Donna or Linda can answer any questions you may have.

NURTURE*Women of Peace

We will gather at Mimi's Cafe in Turkey Creek at 11:30 a.m. on July 16. Donna has been looking at movies, but can't find any source that looks ahead. A current movie that looks interesting is Pom, a story about retirement home women who form a cheerleading squad. Now it is playing at AMC Windsor (Movies 7) at 2:00 p.m. We may just gather for food and fellowship, but if a movie looks good to us and is at a reasonable time, we can do that as well. Feel free to research movies yourself and come with a suggestion. I do not need a firm number of women who will meet at Mimi's, but I would like to know if some are coming so I do not go to lunch alone. Respond to Donna, 690-1050 or 256-1037 (text is fine).

Peace Women's Book Group

On Tuesday, August 6, at 10:00 a.m., we will discuss Little Fires Everywhere, a novel by Celeste Ng. Looking ahead: September 3, An American Marriage by Tayari Jones.

Thoughtful Faith*Luke 10:25-37

Jesus is challenged to explain what is involved in obeying the greatest commandment. Jesus tells a parable rich in surprises: those expected to show pity display hard hearts while the lowly give and receive unexpected and lavish mercy.

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live." But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.' Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
