ELCA Prayer Ventures

May 2-9

2

Continue to pray for the people and communities in Puerto Rico and other areas of the Caribbean involved in long-term hurricane recovery work, especially restoring safe housing, power and clean water; give thanks for the work of Lutheran Disaster Response and its partners to bring God's hope, healing and renewal to people whose lives have been disrupted by disasters in the United States and around the world.

3

Remember in prayer leaders and delegates gathered for the Rocky Mountain and Southeastern Pennsylvania synod assemblies, that the Spirit will strengthen, guide and encourage them for God's work in the world and growing the church.

4

Remember in prayer leaders and delegates gathered for the Northeastern Minnesota, Minneapolis Area and Southeastern Minnesota synod assemblies, that the Spirit will strengthen, guide and encourage them for God's work in the world and growing the church.

5

Remember in prayer leaders and delegates gathered for the Arkansas-Oklahoma, Southwestern Texas and South-Central Synod of Wisconsin synod assemblies, that the Spirit will strengthen, guide and encourage them for God's work in the world and growing the church.

6

Pray for God's forgiveness and patience – for ourselves, our church and society – in these times when, too often and easily, we allow differences of opinion and life experience, hostility and vengeance to create rifts in our relationships and communities, that the Spirit will help recenter our lives in Jesus' commandment to love each other as God has loved us.

7

Pray for the service and witness of the 11 young adults serving in the Young Adults in Global Mission (YAGM) program; the Rev. Rachel Eskesen and Zachary Courter, YAGM country coordinators for Central Europe; and the Rev. Anne Morawski serving with our companions in Hungary and Serbia.

8

Give thanks for the rich partnership and relationship we have with the United Church of Christ, a full communion partner with the ELCA since 1997. Pray for their church and ask God to further our respect for one another and work together sharing the gospel and serving our neighbor.

9

The call to believe and be baptized is for all people, without exception or favoritism. We ask God to help us see the Spirit at work in the people around us and to be welcoming, encouraging, bold witnesses to the gospel.

Congregational Meeting - SUNDAY

This is to inform you of our next Congregational Meeting to be held on May 6, 2018, after worship. The focus of this meeting is to elect a new Vice-President and Treasurer. We will also elect two persons to attend the SE Synod Assembly. Please take some time to consider the work we have to do at Peace and know that our council has the best interest of our congregation in mind in all decisions we make. These individuals have agreed to serve in these challenging jobs and will need our prayers and support over the next two years. We will also be voting on Bylaw amendments of Peace's Constitution. These were sent to you earlier by email.

KARM Lunch Thanks

Dave and Judy Terwell, Jim and Susan McLemore, Pete, Phyllis, Larry, and Violet Etzler and Bethany Ladner, Barbara Marquette, Eva Kratts, Anne and Thomas Hudnall, and Donna Ellstrom--the long list of volunteers that prepared lunch at KARM Saturday, April 28. Another church served hotdogs outside, so our guest list wasn't as long as it might have been: 129 people were served about 145 meals. We left food for future meals at the mission. Thanks to Judy we now have laminated directions for each food preparation station. Thanks to all (especially the ones who signed up but were not needed that day) who carried out our promise to serve lunch every seventh Saturday.

Worship

It is that time of the year where we move to just one service at 9:30. One summer service has long been a tradition at Peace Lutheran. Gathering together as a single church family helps to renew our connections which may have frayed ever-so-slightly since last summer. Over the winter we saw each other as in a mirror dimly, but this summer will see face to face. I encourage each of us to make the extra effort to be a part of the family this Sunday.

However, beyond this Sunday we need to look ahead. Last Sunday was the last Sunday of our Music/Choir director. Emily did a marvelous job her three years with us. Building upon the solid foundation laid by our previous director Marlene, Emily made us a stronger choir and a stronger congregation. And, in so doing, she propelled us in our future direction. An active, energetic music/worship program is vital to congregational life and ministry.

At our next council meeting, I will propose to the council that a task force is appointed to search for our next music director. This task force should include our Worship and Spirituality Commission head, myself, two choir members (one from the Men of Peace and one from the full choir) and one of our young adults. (Emily has also agreed to aid in this effort as asked.) The task force will seek input from others in the congregation as to what skills and vision are necessary to ensure a continued vibrant music presence at Peace Lutheran. Our target date for having this person in place is the 1st of August.

If you have some suggestions, please talk to me, Eva Kratts, or any of our council members.

Peace

Pastor Ralph
